

Professionalism Policy

Arch Dermatology Institute strives to maintain the best possible experiences for our patients. This is a goal for us as a practice.

Both staff and patients will act in a respectful and professional manner so that the best possible quality of dermatology service can be achieved. Arch Dermatology Institute will not tolerate harassment of any type, including but not limited to verbal, physical or sexual harassment. Any events or actions of this sort will lead to immediate and full termination of the physician-patient relationship.

Thank you for your understanding and we look forward to serving your dermatology needs.
